

Pair will unspool 'Spin'

Redford pic won two awards at Heartland Film Festival

By DANA HARRIS

Turtles Crossing and Innovation Film Group will handle the U.S. release of "Spin."

The directorial debut of James Redford, pic will open Oct. 15. in Salt Lake City and Tucson, followed by Long Island, Boston, Phoenix and other cities.

A coming-of-age tale set in the 1950s, "Spin" centers on a young boy raised by a ranch manager after his parents are killed. Pic won two awards at the Heartland Film Festival. "Spin" was directed by James Redford, who adapted the screenplay from Donald Everett Axinn's 1991 novel.

Cast includes Stanley Tucci, Dana Delany and Ruben Blades. Axinn produced the film with Elaine M. Rogers.

A charity premiere to benefit the James Redford Institute for Transplant Awareness will be held Oct. 9 at the Sundance Resort.

Innovation, the theatrical partner of Turtles Crossing, is headed by Mark Borde. Curb Entertainment reps international rights on "Spin."

Date in print: Mon., Aug. 4, 2003, Los Angeles